

An incident involving police officers being seen on board an ambulance (Tsim Sha Tsui)

In the morning, an FSD ambulance was dispatched to Mody Road, Tsim Sha Tsui to attend to a case requesting emergency ambulance service. The ambulance personnel called the Police to the scene to handle the incident as it involved acts of assault. Police officers arrived and boarded the ambulance. After confirming that there was no need for them to escort the injured person to hospital, they got off and let the ambulance convey the injured person to hospital for medical assistance.
